

AAVSB Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does AAVSB stand for?

- A) American Association of Veterinary State Boards
- B) American Academy of Veterinary Science Bureau
- C) Association of Animal Veterinary Service Boards
- D) American Alliance of Veterinary Standards Board

2. What is the primary purpose of the NAVLE exam administered by AAVSB?

- A) To assess continuing education requirements
- B) To evaluate clinical competency for veterinary licensure
- C) To certify veterinary technicians
- D) To evaluate research capabilities

3. Which animals are primarily covered in the NAVLE examination?

- A) Only companion animals
- B) Only farm animals
- C) Multiple species including companion, farm, and exotic animals
- D) Only laboratory animals

4. What is required to be eligible to take the NAVLE?

- A) High school diploma only
- B) Graduation from an AVMA-accredited veterinary college
- C) Completion of internship only
- D) Work experience in veterinary practice

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-C 4-B

For More AAVSB Questions and Answers FREE, AAVSB Online Prep Training, AAVSB Exam, AAVSB Study Guide, AAVSB Flashcards, AAVSB Quizzes visit:

AAVSB Practice Test

Practice Test Geeks © All Rights Reserved