

ABPS Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does ABPS stand for in medical specialization?

- A) American Board of Plastic Surgery
- B) American Board of Pharmaceutical Sciences
- C) Association of Biomedical Physical Sciences
- D) American Board of Professional Standards

2. Which procedure is commonly performed in plastic and reconstructive surgery?

- A) Cardiac catheterization
- B) Skin grafting and tissue reconstruction
- C) Dialysis
- D) Endoscopic surgery only

3. What is the most important consideration in wound healing for plastic surgery?

- A) Speed of closure
- B) Proper vascularization and tissue viability
- C) Cost of materials
- D) Patient age only

4. Which imaging study is most useful for preoperative planning in reconstructive surgery?

- A) Chest X-ray
- B) CT or MRI depending on the anatomical area
- C) Basic laboratory tests
- D) EKG only

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More ABPS Questions and Answers FREE, ABPS Online Prep Training, ABPS Exam, ABPS Study Guide, ABPS Flashcards, ABPS Quizzes visit:

ABPS Practice Test