

ACRP Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does ACRP stand for in clinical research?

- A) Association of Clinical Research Professionals
- B) American Clinical Research Program
- C) Advanced Clinical Research Procedures
- D) Academy of Clinical Research Practitioners

2. Which document outlines the ethical principles for research involving human subjects?

- A) Good Clinical Practice (GCP)
- B) Declaration of Helsinki
- C) Nuremberg Code
- D) All of the above

3. What is the primary purpose of an Institutional Review Board (IRB)?

- A) To approve study budgets
- B) To protect the rights and welfare of research subjects
- C) To design clinical trials
- D) To analyze study data

4. In clinical research, what does "informed consent" require?

- A) Participant's voluntary agreement with full understanding
- B) Physician's approval only
- C) Written documentation from family members
- D) Verbal agreement from the participant

Answers: 1-A 2-D 3-B 4-A

For More ACRP Questions and Answers FREE, ACRP Online Prep Training, ACRP Exam, ACRP Study Guide, ACRP Flashcards, ACRP Quizzes visit:

ACRP Practice Test