

ARF Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. An ARF license is issued to:

- A) A specific individual or entity for a specific location
- B) Any qualified operator within the same county
- C) The facility's lead direct care staff member
- D) The county in which the facility is located

2. How must medications in an ARF be labeled?

- A) Each medication must be in its original labeled container with the resident's name, drug name, dose, and prescriber
- B) A master label may cover multiple residents' medications in shared storage
- C) Staff may relabel medications in plain language for resident comprehension
- D) Labels are optional if medications are stored in an individual resident's room

3. How do ARFs assist with resident transportation?

- A) Providing transportation to medical appointments
- B) Offering shuttle services for social and recreational activities
- C) Offering emergency ambulance transport
- D) Coordinating with families for long-distance travel

4. What is the purpose of a provisional ARF license?

- A) To allow a new operator to begin operations while completing all licensing requirements
- B) To permit facilities to exceed their licensed capacity temporarily
- C) To operate without fire clearance for 90 days
- D) To waive background check requirements for staff

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More ARF Questions and Answers FREE, ARF Online Prep Training,
ARF Exam, ARF Study Guide, ARF Flashcards, ARF Quizzes visit:

ARF Practice Test