

Abstract Reasoning Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does abstract reasoning refer to?

- A) Thinking beyond concrete facts and objects
- B) Relying solely on concrete information and experiences
- C) Ignoring logic and critical thinking
- D) Sticking to familiar or predictable scenarios

2. What is abstract reasoning a measure of?

- A) Cognitive ability
- B) Fluid intelligence
- C) Crystallised intelligence
- D) Verbal reasoning

3. What is an example of abstract reasoning?

- A) Solving a puzzle to identify patterns or sequences
- B) Recalling specific information or facts
- C) Analyzing complex data sets
- D) Performing complex mathematical calculations

4. What do abstract reasoning tests measure?

- A) Past experiences and prior knowledge
- B) Ability to think analytically and solve problems in unfamiliar or complex situations
- C) Concrete knowledge and skills
- D) Verbal and mathematical abilities

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-A 4-B

For More Abstract Reasoning Questions and Answers FREE, Abstract Reasoning Online Prep Training, Abstract Reasoning Exam, Abstract Reasoning Study Guide, Abstract Reasoning Flashcards, Abstract Reasoning Quizzes visit:

Abstract Reasoning Practice Test