

Alberta Motor Association Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What do orange signs indicate?

- A) Temporary traffic control in work zones
- B) Permanent speed limit changes
- C) Emergency detour routes
- D) Railway crossings

2. How do you properly change lanes?

- A) When it's safe to move forward, check your blind spots, your mirrors, and your signal.
- B) Proceed after checking your mirrors and giving a signal.
- C) Proceed after checking your blind zone and mirrors.
- D) After giving a signal, continue.

3. What is a controlled intersection?

- A) An intersection staffed by a police officer only
- B) Any intersection with traffic signs, signals, or pavement markings that assign right of way
- C) An intersection on a one-way street
- D) An intersection with a roundabout

4. Double yellow line markings means:

- A) The lane is designated for specific vehicles only.
- B) Vehicles on each side must travel in opposite directions.
- C) Parking is prohibited because nearby traffic needs to turn in that area.
- D) You will soon approach a railway crossing.

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-B 4-B

For More Alberta Motor Association Questions and Answers FREE, Alberta Motor Association Online Prep Training,
Alberta Motor Association Exam, Alberta Motor Association Study Guide, Alberta Motor Association Flashcards, Alberta Motor Association Quizzes visit:

Alberta Motor Association Practice Test