

Association For Facilities Engineering Certification Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What is the primary focus of preventive maintenance in facilities engineering?

- A) Reacting to equipment failures as they occur
- B) Scheduled maintenance to prevent equipment failure and extend asset life
- C) Replacing all equipment every five years
- D) Waiting for warranty periods to expire

2. Which HVAC system component is responsible for controlling indoor air quality and temperature?

- A) Fire suppression system
- B) Air handling unit with filtration and climate control
- C) Emergency lighting system
- D) Plumbing distribution system

3. What is the most effective approach for managing energy consumption in commercial facilities?

- A) Leaving all systems running continuously
- B) Implementing energy monitoring systems and optimization strategies
- C) Using only manual controls for all systems
- D) Avoiding any building automation

4. Which safety standard is most critical for facilities engineering professionals to follow?

- A) Personal preference guidelines
- B) OSHA regulations and building codes
- C) Manufacturer suggestions only
- D) Informal industry practices

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More Association For Facilities Engineering Certification Questions and Answers FREE, Association For Facilities Engineering Certification Online Prep Training,

Association For Facilities Engineering Certification Exam, Association For Facilities Engineering Certification Study Guide, Association For Facilities Engineering Certification Flashcards, Association For Facilities Engineering Certification Quizzes visit:

Association For Facilities Engineering Certification Practice Test

Practice Test Geeks © All Rights Reserved