

CCS Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does CCS typically stand for in medical coding?

- A) Certified Coding Specialist
- B) Clinical Care Specialist
- C) Computer Coding Systems
- D) Certified Clinical Supervisor

2. Which coding system is primarily used for inpatient hospital procedures?

- A) CPT codes
- B) ICD-10-PCS codes
- C) HCPCS codes
- D) DRG codes

3. How many characters are in a complete ICD-10-PCS code?

- A) 5 characters
- B) 6 characters
- C) 7 characters
- D) 8 characters

4. What is the primary purpose of accurate medical coding?

- A) Patient care documentation only
- B) Billing and reimbursement accuracy
- C) Research purposes only
- D) Legal compliance only

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-C 4-B

For More CCS Questions and Answers FREE, CCS Online Prep Training, CCS Exam, CCS Study Guide, CCS Flashcards, CCS Quizzes visit:

CCS Practice Test