

CER Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does CER stand for in writing and reasoning?

- A) Claim, Evidence, Reasoning
- B) Compare, Evaluate, Reflect
- C) Cause, Effect, Result
- D) Create, Examine, Report

2. In the CER framework, what is the purpose of the "Evidence" component?

- A) To state personal opinions
- B) To provide data and facts that support the claim
- C) To summarize the conclusion
- D) To ask additional questions

3. Which type of evidence is most reliable in scientific reasoning?

- A) Personal anecdotes
- B) Quantitative data from controlled experiments
- C) Popular opinions
- D) Theoretical assumptions

4. What should the "Reasoning" component of CER explain?

- A) Why the topic is interesting
- B) How the evidence supports the claim using scientific principles
- C) What other people think
- D) When the research was conducted

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More CER Questions and Answers FREE, CER Online Prep Training, CER Exam, CER Study Guide, CER Flashcards, CER Quizzes visit:

CER Practice Test