

CME Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What is the primary requirement for Continuing Medical Education (CME) credits in most medical specialties?

- A) Attending social events with medical colleagues
- B) Participating in accredited educational activities to maintain competency
- C) Reading medical journals without formal assessment
- D) Volunteering at local community health fairs

2. Which organization is the primary accreditor of CME activities in the United States?

- A) American Hospital Association (AHA)
- B) Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME)
- C) Centers for Disease Control (CDC)
- D) Food and Drug Administration (FDA)

3. How many CME credits are typically required for physicians to maintain board certification annually?

- A) 10-15 credits
- B) 25-50 credits depending on specialty
- C) 5 credits maximum
- D) 100 credits minimum

4. What is the difference between Category 1 and Category 2 CME credits?

- A) Category 1 is for specialists only, Category 2 for general practitioners
- B) Category 1 is formally accredited, Category 2 includes self-directed learning
- C) Category 1 is online only, Category 2 is in-person only
- D) There is no difference between the categories

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More CME Questions and Answers FREE, CME Online Prep Training, CME Exam, CME Study Guide, CME Flashcards, CME Quizzes visit:

CME Practice Test