

Certified Transportation Security Administration Driver Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What is the purpose of TSA driver certification?

- A) To allow drivers to transport hazardous materials without oversight.
- B) To ensure drivers are qualified to operate vehicles and transport goods securely, following TSA regulations.
- C) To give drivers the ability to bypass vehicle inspections.
- D) To ensure drivers are free from any regulatory oversight.

2. In adverse weather conditions, TSA drivers should:

- A) Maintain normal speed to stay on schedule
- B) Reduce speed, increase following distance, and exercise additional caution
- C) Avoid all driving until conditions improve regardless of mission urgency
- D) Switch to personal vehicles instead

3. How often must TSA driver certification be renewed?

- A) Once every ten years.
- B) Once every five years.
- C) Every few years, depending on the requirements set by TSA.
- D) Every year.

4. What kind of vehicles require TSA-certified drivers?

- A) Only personal vehicles used for commuting.
- B) Only trucks that transport non-sensitive goods.
- C) Vehicles transporting sensitive or high-security cargo, including hazardous materials.
- D) Vehicles used for public transportation.

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-C 4-C

For More Certified Transportation Security Administration Driver Questions and Answers FREE, Certified Transportation Security Administration Driver Online Prep Training, Certified Transportation Security Administration Driver Exam, Certified Transportation Security Administration Driver Study Guide, Certified Transportation Security Administration Driver Flashcards, Certified Transportation Security Administration Driver Quizzes visit:

Certified Transportation Security Administration Driver Practice Test