

DSP Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Why is documentation important in DSP work?

- A) To create a record for legal purposes only.
- B) To track the progress, challenges, and any incidents with the individual.
- C) To make personal notes about the individual's habits.
- D) To limit communication between team members.

2. What does 'PRN' mean on a medication order?

- A) Administer the medication at a fixed daily time
- B) Administer the medication as needed based on specific conditions
- C) Do not administer unless a nurse is present
- D) The medication has been permanently discontinued

3. What is the role of a DSP in team-based care?

- A) They work alone without communicating with other team members.
- B) They collaborate with other professionals to support the individual's care plan.
- C) They manage the team and make all decisions for the individual.
- D) They focus only on the individual's medical care.

4. What is a crucial ethical responsibility of a DSP?

- A) Providing care without obtaining consent.
- B) Respecting the dignity and privacy of individuals.
- C) Prioritizing the DSP's convenience over the individual's needs.
- D) Making decisions for the individual without any involvement.

Answers: 1-@ 2-B 3-@ 4-@

For More DSP Questions and Answers FREE, DSP Online Prep Training,
DSP Exam, DSP Study Guide, DSP Flashcards, DSP Quizzes visit:

DSP Practice Test