

Family Nurse Practitioner Test Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Nearsightedness

- A) RICE Mnemonic
- B) Proptosis
- C) Myopia
- D) Ph of vagina

2. What is McMurray's sign:

- A) Positive in meniscus injuries of the knee
- B) Variation in red blood cell size
- C) Problem is anterior to the chiasm
- D) None of the above

3. Deep tendon reflex testing:

- A) absent(0),hypoactive (1)normal(2)hyperactive(3)clonus(4)
- B) Quinsy (collection of pus b/t tonsil & capsule of tonsillar pillar)
- C) Undescended testes left testicle hangs lower than the right one
- D) none of the above

4. What is Goodpasture syndrome?

- A) Typically, the end stage of other glomerular disorders, such as rapidly progressive glomerulonephritis, lupus nephritis, or diabetic nephropathy.
- B) An inflammatory autoimmune disorder affecting the connective tissue of the body, with inflammatory lesions involving the supportive tissues of the glomeruli.
- C) Characterized by glomerulonephritis and pulmonary hemorrhage resulting from immune complex damage to the glomerular and alveolar basement membranes.
- D) Characterized by massive proteinuria, hypoalbuminemia, hyperlipidemia, and edema.

Answers: 1-C 2-A 3-A 4-C

For More Family Nurse Practitioner Test Questions and Answers FREE, Family Nurse Practitioner Test Online Prep Training, Family Nurse Practitioner Test Exam, Family Nurse Practitioner Test Study Guide, Family Nurse Practitioner Test Flashcards, Family Nurse Practitioner Test Quizzes visit:

Family Nurse Practitioner Test Practice Test