

GED - Certified General Educational Development Teacher Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. The formal curriculum refers to:

- A) Unwritten norms and values learned at school
- B) The officially documented, intended curriculum as mandated by authorities
- C) What students actually learn and internalize
- D) After-school enrichment programs

2. The hidden curriculum refers to:

- A) Content that has been removed from the official curriculum
- B) Unintended lessons, values, and norms students learn from the school environment
- C) Classified information in teacher manuals
- D) Advanced coursework for gifted students

3. Inter-rater reliability refers to:

- A) A test giving the same results when re-administered to the same students
- B) The degree to which different scorers assign the same scores to the same work
- C) How well a test predicts future student performance
- D) The alignment between test items and the curriculum

4. Scope in curriculum design refers to:

- A) The sequence in which content is taught across grade levels
- B) The breadth and depth of content covered at a given level
- C) The time allotted for each lesson
- D) The alignment of curriculum to state standards

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More GED - Certified General Educational Development Teacher Questions and Answers FREE, GED - Certified General Educational Development Teacher Online Prep Training, GED - Certified General Educational Development Teacher Exam, GED - Certified General Educational Development Teacher Study Guide, GED - Certified General Educational Development Teacher Flashcards, GED - Certified General Educational Development Teacher Quizzes visit:

GED - Certified General Educational Development Teacher Practice Test