

GLC Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does GLC typically stand for in legal counseling context?

- A) General Legal Counsel
- B) Graduate Law Certificate
- C) Government Legal Counselor
- D) Global Legal Compliance

2. Which ethical principle is fundamental to legal counseling practice?

- A) Maximizing billable hours
- B) Client confidentiality and attorney-client privilege
- C) Promoting personal political views
- D) Guaranteeing favorable outcomes

3. What is the primary purpose of a conflict of interest check in legal practice?

- A) To increase legal fees
- B) To ensure competent representation without divided loyalties
- C) To limit the number of clients
- D) To comply with tax regulations

4. In legal counseling, what does "zealous advocacy" mean?

- A) Arguing aggressively in all situations
- B) Representing clients with dedication within ethical and legal bounds
- C) Taking any case regardless of merit
- D) Charging the highest possible fees

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More GLC Questions and Answers FREE, GLC Online Prep Training, GLC Exam, GLC Study Guide, GLC Flashcards, GLC Quizzes visit:

GLC Practice Test