

General CNA Practice Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Aspiration occurs when:

- A) Food is properly chewed and swallowed
- B) Food or liquid enters the airway instead of the esophagus
- C) A resident refuses to eat
- D) A resident drinks too much water

2. Rheumatoid arthritis may

- A) Cause pain and muscle spasms
- B) Cause deformities
- C) Have periods of remission
- D) All of the above

3. What does afebrile mean?

- A) Low fever
- B) High fever
- C) No fever
- D) Sudden fever

4. Pulse oximetry measures:

- A) Blood glucose level
- B) The percentage of hemoglobin saturated with oxygen in the blood
- C) Heart rate only
- D) Carbon dioxide levels in exhaled air

Answers: 1-B 2-D 3-C 4-B

For More General CNA Practice Questions and Answers FREE, General CNA Practice Online Prep Training, General CNA Practice Exam, General CNA Practice Study Guide, General CNA Practice Flashcards, General CNA Practice Quizzes visit:

General CNA Practice Practice Test