

IELTS - International English Language Testing System Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. The writer suggests that

- A) anti-social behaviour should be seen as a crime.
- B) few people agree on how to define a crime.
- C) anti social behaviour is difficult to define.
- D) the legal definition of crime is too exclusive.

2. What is the tone of the speaker?

- A) The tone is formal and informative.
- B) The tone is casual and conversational.
- C) The tone is pessimistic.
- D) The tone is aggressive.

3. Existing since birth (adjective).

- A) natural
- B) inborn
- C) umbrage
- D) intrinsic

4. (noun) The beginning of something.

- A) initiation
- B) termination
- C) intensification
- D) exploration

Answers: 1-C 2-B 3-B 4-A

For More IELTS - International English Language Testing System Questions and Answers FREE, IELTS - International English Language Testing System Online Prep Training, IELTS - International English Language Testing System Exam, IELTS - International English Language Testing System Study Guide, IELTS - International English Language Testing System Flashcards, IELTS - International English Language Testing System Quizzes visit:

IELTS - International English Language Testing System Practice Test