

ISMP Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. A few IV site issues that could arise include:

- A) Infection
- B) Infiltration
- C) Extravasation
- D) Phlebitis

2. Medication reconciliation is defined as the process of:

- A) Filling prescriptions faster
- B) Comparing a patient's medication orders to all medications the patient has been taking to avoid discrepancies
- C) Counting pills in the pharmacy
- D) Billing for medications

3. Which medication do you take in a mental health crisis?

- A) Ryanodex
- B) Dantrium
- C) Revonto
- D) Dantrolene

4. A 2014 ISMP survey on drug dilution procedures revealed.

- A) For IV push delivery, pharmacists frequently dilute drugs improperly.
- B) Only 20% of nurses asked said they further diluted adult IV push drugs before giving them out.
- C) Based on nursing preferences, the nurse in the survey chose to further dilute adult IV push drugs (no references were used to support the dilution practices)
- D) None of the above

Answers: 1-F 2-B 3-D 4-D

For More ISMP Questions and Answers FREE, ISMP Online Prep Training,
ISMP Exam, ISMP Study Guide, ISMP Flashcards, ISMP Quizzes visit:

ISMP Practice Test