

LARE Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does a MasterFormat serve?

- A) Provide intermediate skill training for employees who want to master higher level skills
- B) Provide a uniform format for all written communications to employees
- C) Provide a standard to organize specifications and important paperwork for a project
- D) Provide a standard to codify all industry abbreviations and acronyms

2. Climate, Soil, Types of plants, and Site Design.

- A) Irrigation system design strategies are influenced by
- B) Bicycle system
- C) Designing outdoor recreational facilities for the impaired
- D) The site analysis phase of a project

3. What does the term 'soil horizon' refer to in site analysis?

- A) The maximum depth of a site's seasonal high water table
- B) A distinct layer of soil with different physical and chemical properties from adjacent layers
- C) The horizontal extent of a soil type across a site
- D) The depth at which bedrock is encountered during boring

4. In a LARE planting plan, what does the symbol 'DBH' refer to?

- A) Design Build Height — the expected height at five years
- B) Diameter at Breast Height — trunk diameter measured at 4.5 feet above grade
- C) Depth Below Hardpan — used to specify root barrier installation
- D) Design Base Height — the minimum clearance under a tree canopy

Answers: 1-C 2-A 3-B 4-B

For More LARE Questions and Answers FREE, LARE Online Prep Training,
LARE Exam, LARE Study Guide, LARE Flashcards, LARE Quizzes visit:

LARE Practice Test