

LCSW Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. When conducting a psychosocial assessment with a new client experiencing depression, what is the MOST important factor to assess first?

- A) Family history of mental illness
- B) Current suicidal ideation or intent
- C) Medication compliance history
- D) Employment and financial status

2. According to the NASW Code of Ethics, when is it appropriate for a social worker to disclose confidential client information without consent?

- A) When the client's family requests information
- B) When there is a clear and imminent danger to the client or others
- C) When the social worker believes it would benefit the client
- D) When court-ordered without a subpoena

3. In cognitive-behavioral therapy (CBT), what is the primary focus when working with a client who has anxiety disorders?

- A) Exploring childhood trauma and its impact
- B) Identifying and challenging negative thought patterns
- C) Analyzing transference and countertransference
- D) Focusing solely on behavioral modifications

4. When working with a client from a different cultural background, what is the BEST approach for culturally competent practice?

- A) Apply universal treatment approaches regardless of culture
- B) Assume all members of the culture share identical beliefs
- C) Acknowledge your own biases and actively learn about the client's cultural context
- D) Refer the client to a social worker from their same cultural background

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-B 4-C

For More LCSW Questions and Answers FREE, LCSW Online Prep Training, LCSW Exam, LCSW Study Guide, LCSW Flashcards, LCSW Quizzes visit:

LCSW Practice Test