

Laboratory Professional Exam Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What is the most critical aspect of laboratory specimen handling?

- A) Processing specimens quickly without protocols
- B) Proper identification, collection, and chain of custody
- C) Storing all specimens at room temperature
- D) Ignoring expiration dates

2. Which quality control measure is essential in laboratory testing?

- A) Running tests without controls
- B) Daily quality control samples and calibration verification
- C) Using expired reagents
- D) Skipping equipment maintenance

3. What safety protocol is most important in clinical laboratories?

- A) Working without personal protective equipment
- B) Universal precautions and proper biohazard handling
- C) Eating and drinking in work areas
- D) Ignoring chemical safety data sheets

4. How should laboratory results be reported and documented?

- A) Informal verbal communication only
- B) Accurate, timely, and properly documented with proper verification
- C) Estimated values without verification
- D) Delayed reporting regardless of urgency

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More Laboratory Professional Exam Questions and Answers FREE, Laboratory Professional Exam Online Prep Training, Laboratory Professional Exam, Laboratory Professional Exam Study Guide, Laboratory Professional Exam Flashcards, Laboratory Professional Exam Quizzes visit: