

Licensed Specialist in Psychology Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What is the primary difference between a Licensed Specialist in Psychology and a Licensed Psychologist?

- A) No difference in scope of practice
- B) LSP typically requires a master's degree while LP requires a doctoral degree
- C) LSP can prescribe medications while LP cannot
- D) LSP works only in hospitals while LP works in private practice

2. Which ethical principle is fundamental to psychological practice?

- A) Profit maximization
- B) Beneficence and non-maleficence (do good, do no harm)
- C) Rapid treatment completion
- D) Family involvement in all cases

3. What is required for maintaining client confidentiality?

- A) Sharing information with family members automatically
- B) Protecting client information except when legally or ethically required to disclose
- C) Recording all sessions for training purposes
- D) Discussing cases freely with colleagues

4. Which assessment approach is most appropriate for diagnosing mental health conditions?

- A) Single-session evaluation only
- B) Comprehensive clinical interview, standardized assessments, and behavioral observations
- C) Online questionnaires only
- D) Family member reports exclusively

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More Licensed Specialist in Psychology Questions and Answers FREE, Licensed Specialist in Psychology Online Prep Training, Licensed Specialist in Psychology Exam, Licensed Specialist in Psychology Study Guide, Licensed Specialist in Psychology Flashcards, Licensed Specialist in Psychology Quizzes visit:

Licensed Specialist in Psychology Practice Test

Practice Test Geeks © All Rights Reserved