

MLS Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does MLS stand for in library and information science?

- A) Master of Library Science
- B) Multiple Library Systems
- C) Modern Learning Solutions
- D) Media and Literature Studies

2. What is the primary purpose of cataloging in library science?

- A) To count the number of books
- B) To organize and describe library materials for easy retrieval
- C) To determine book prices
- D) To decorate the library shelves

3. Which classification system is most commonly used in academic libraries?

- A) Dewey Decimal Classification
- B) Library of Congress Classification
- C) Universal Decimal Classification
- D) Alphabetical system

4. What is information literacy?

- A) The ability to read quickly
- B) The ability to find, evaluate, and use information effectively
- C) The ability to use computers
- D) The ability to memorize facts

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More MLS Questions and Answers FREE, MLS Online Prep Training, MLS Exam, MLS Study Guide, MLS Flashcards, MLS Quizzes visit:

MLS Practice Test