

ND Bar Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Which of the following is required for admission to the North Dakota State Bar?

- A) Graduation from an ABA-accredited law school only
- B) Passing the North Dakota bar examination and character and fitness review
- C) Completion of a judicial clerkship
- D) Five years of legal experience in another jurisdiction

2. Under North Dakota professional conduct rules, which statement about client confidentiality is correct?

- A) Confidentiality ends when the client relationship terminates
- B) Lawyers may disclose confidential information to prevent substantial bodily harm
- C) Client confidentiality only applies to privileged communications
- D) Confidential information may be disclosed without consent for any court proceeding

3. In North Dakota civil procedure, what is the standard statute of limitations for personal injury claims?

- A) One year from the date of injury
- B) Two years from the date of injury
- C) Six years from the date of injury
- D) Ten years from the date of injury

4. Which court has original jurisdiction over felony criminal cases in North Dakota?

- A) Municipal courts
- B) District courts
- C) County courts
- D) Supreme court

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-C 4-B

For More ND Bar Questions and Answers FREE, ND Bar Online Prep Training, ND Bar Exam, ND Bar Study Guide, ND Bar Flashcards, ND Bar Quizzes visit:

ND Bar Practice Test