

OFA Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does OFA commonly stand for in veterinary screening?

- A) Orthopedic Foundation for Animals
- B) Official Fitness Assessment
- C) Organ Function Analysis
- D) Optimal Feed Administration

2. What is the primary purpose of OFA hip screening in dogs?

- A) To determine coat color genetics
- B) To evaluate hip dysplasia and certify breeding soundness
- C) To assess nutritional needs
- D) To check for parasites

3. At what minimum age can dogs receive OFA hip certification?

- A) 12 months
- B) 18 months
- C) 24 months
- D) 36 months

4. Which OFA hip grade indicates excellent hip conformation?

- A) Good
- B) Excellent
- C) Fair
- D) Borderline

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-C 4-B

For More OFA Questions and Answers FREE, OFA Online Prep Training, OFA Exam, OFA Study Guide, OFA Flashcards, OFA Quizzes visit:

OFA Practice Test