

Software Testing Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. The oracle's concept:

- A) is that the tests are reviewed by experienced testers.
- B) is that there is some existing system against which test output may be checked.
- C) is that the tester can routinely identify the correct outcome of a test.
- D) is that the tester knows everything about the software under test.

2. Software testing should begin

- A) when the requirements have been formally documented
- B) as soon as the code is written
- C) as soon as possible in the development life cycle
- D) during the design stage

3. A technique designing test is

- A) a way to measure the quality of software
- B) a way to measure in a test plan what has to be done
- C) a process for selecting test cases
- D) a process for determining expected outputs

4. A system for logging incidents

- A) should be used only by the test team
- B) only records defects
- C) is of limited value
- D) is a valuable source of project information during testing if it contains all incidents

Answers: 1-C 2-C 3-C 4-D

For More Software Testing Questions and Answers FREE, Software Testing Online Prep Training, Software Testing Exam, Software Testing Study Guide, Software Testing Flashcards, Software Testing Quizzes visit:

Software Testing Practice Test