

TEA ESL Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Which teaching strategy is most effective for English Language Learners (ELLs) when introducing new vocabulary?

- A) Providing only written definitions
- B) Using visual aids, gestures, and context clues
- C) Speaking louder and slower
- D) Translating everything into the student's native language

2. According to Texas ESL standards, what is the primary goal of language instruction for ELLs?

- A) Perfect pronunciation of English sounds
- B) Academic and social language proficiency
- C) Elimination of native language use
- D) Memorization of grammar rules

3. Which assessment method is most appropriate for evaluating an ELL student's language progress?

- A) Traditional multiple-choice tests only
- B) Portfolio assessment with multiple language samples
- C) Timed writing exercises exclusively
- D) Oral presentations in English only

4. What does "scaffolding" mean in ESL instruction?

- A) Building physical structures in the classroom
- B) Providing temporary support that is gradually removed
- C) Teaching students in their native language only
- D) Grouping students by ability level permanently

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More TEA ESL Questions and Answers FREE, TEA ESL Online Prep Training, TEA ESL Exam, TEA ESL Study Guide, TEA ESL Flashcards, TEA ESL Quizzes visit:

TEA ESL Practice Test