

accident attorney Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What are hedonic damages?

- A) Compensation for the loss of enjoyment of life and ability to engage in activities the plaintiff previously enjoyed
- B) Damages for future medical expenses
- C) Punitive damages based on the defendant's financial gain
- D) Compensation for embarrassment caused by visible injuries

2. What is negligence per se?

- A) Negligence established by a defendant's violation of a statute designed to protect the plaintiff
- B) Negligence that is obvious without expert testimony
- C) Negligence inferred from the accident type alone
- D) Negligence that is automatically criminal

3. What is a nuisance value settlement?

- A) A small payment made by the defendant to avoid litigation costs, even when liability is questionable
- B) A settlement covering only property damage after a minor accident
- C) A payment made to a third party to avoid being named in the lawsuit
- D) A settlement imposed by the court to clear the docket

4. What is joint and several liability?

- A) Each defendant can be held responsible for the full amount of damages
- B) Each defendant pays only their proportional share
- C) Liability is divided equally among defendants
- D) Only the most at-fault defendant pays damages

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More accident attorney Questions and Answers FREE, accident attorney Online Prep Training, accident attorney Exam, accident attorney Study Guide, accident attorney Flashcards, accident attorney Quizzes visit:

accident attorney Practice Test